AT MARKET OPENING

Throughout Morning Session Strength in Prices Was Maintained.

NEW YORK, Feb. 6 .- The stock market in general advanced where there were changes. Anaconda, 1%: Great Northern preferred and Reading, % higher: Pennsylvania, Union Pacific, gained ¼, and Erie and Atchison %

The market generally held the strength developed strength developed yesterday, and made advances ranging from fractions to 4 points during the first hour. The Hill issues were about the only stocks that did not reach higher levels in that period. The extreme gain was made in Distilling, which moved up to 75%.

Government bonds unchanged. Railroad and other bonds steady.
The market held its strength all through the forenom, although at times there was an appearance of profit taking against purchases made at lower levels that caused temporary reactions. The supply of stock was easily absorbed and the demand increased toward noon causing a general recovery from the reaction and noon prices were generally within a fracton of the highest level reached so far today.

The December statement of Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul rhows an increase in gross carnings of $30,000, which is below the average monthly increase made in the first six months of the fiscal year. To January 1, gross-carnings increased $2,556,000, or somewhat more than 8 per cent. Judging by present indications the St. Paul should earn not far from $60,000,000 gross this liscal year.

Many of the more important copper companies will seek a listing on the New York Stock Exchange, provided a department for mining shares be established. This would greatly interfere with Boston's pre-eminence as the best primary market for mining securities. It is acknowledged that, sooner or later, this must be the market for the establishment of prices for copper stock of value.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 6.—The police are busy rounding up witnesses to the shooting of William Gagel, aged twenty-three funded at the City Hospital from a bullet wound in the left thigh, inflicted in the Jolly Five club rooms, Fifteenth and Itel wound in the left thigh, inflicted in the Jolly Five club rooms, Fifteenth and Morgan streets.

Gagel refused to tell who shot him. There were a dozen men in the room at the time the shot was fired, and the police finally declared they had evidence to connect Thomas Egan, a deputy constable, with the killing Egan gave bound. He is now wanted before the coroner, who will hold an inquest.

Gagel was released from the penitentiary, where he served a term for the killing of John Caples, twelve years ago, and some friends were celebrating his release at the time he was shot.

LOUIS GOLDMAN DIES FROM HEART TROUBLE SILVIERA CORNERS

Louis Goldman, jewelry salesman and diamond expert, died yesterday after-noon at half past three o'clock at his home, 1522 Sixth street northwest, after an illness of nearly four years. Heart trouble was the cause of death.

Mr. Goldman was born in Europe fiftyfive years ago. He came to the United States when ten years of age, and for the last thirty-five years he made Wash-business in 1886 to devote his time to the sale of diamonds.

He leaves a wife, two daughters, and a son. Funeral services will be held at the house tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, and the burial will be in the cemetery of the Washington Hebrew

VERDICT AGAINST SENATOR ELKINS

Jury in Circuit Court Reports for Burton & Dubreuil After Twenty Hours.

After being locked up for more than twenty hours the jury in the Elkins case at 10:30 o'clock this morning filed into Circuit Court, No. 1, Justice Wright presiding, and announced that they had agreed on a verdict for the plaintiffs, Robert Burton and George A. Dubreuil, of Baltimore, for $5,000 and costs.

When the court convened at 10 o'clock Senator Elkins, with his counsel, A. S. Worthington, and George A. Csivert Jr., of counsel for Burton & Dubreul were present. Justice Wright said h would not disturb the jury, so Senator Elkins left the court and was not pres ent when the verdict was announced. Neither were the plaintiffs. The jury took a number of bailots last night, but without arriving at a verdict. The bal oting was resumed after breakfast this morning and at about 10:15 they had agreed.

They say that an agreement has been reached among the Republican leaders of the Senate not to take a yote now upon the local child labor measure.

Senator Beveridge gave notice some time ago that he intended to introduce his general child labor measure as an amendment to the District child labor.

Scnators who are opposed to child labor legislation along the lines laid down by the Beveridge plan, do not want to go on record on the measure at this time, and for this reason the Republican leaders are said to have determined to put the whole matter over until next to investigate the constitutional phases of the question more fully before yoting on it.
